UEMS OCCUPATIONAL MEDICINE

=> SPECIALIST EXAM PROPOSAL
UEMS OCCUPATIONAL MEDICINE

⇒ SPECIALIST EXAM PROPOSAL

CORE COMPETENCIES
UEMS OCCUPATIONAL MEDICINE

⇒ SPECIALIST EXAM PROPOSAL

CORE COMPETENCIES

E P A (Entrustable Professional Activities)
OM Specialist training covers 10 focus areas
(ETR = European Training Requirements)

1. Framework for practice
2. Clinical practice
3. Fitness for work, rehabilitation, disability assessment
4. Hazard recognition, evaluation and control risk
5. Business continuity, disaster preparedness, emergency management
6. Service delivery and quality improvement
7. Leadership, policy development, professionalism
8. Epidemiology and preventive health
9. Research methods
10. Effective teaching and educational supervision
LEARNING OUTCOMES

Competences and Attitudes

Knowledge

Skills
UEMS CESMA (Council for European Specialists Medical Assessment)

1. Advisory body of the UEMS (since 2007)
   - Provides recommendation and advice for European examinations among medical specialists at the European level

2. CESMA evaluation of the Examination Process

3. UEMS OM Section
   - ETR already exists => updating
   - core competencies + evaluation strategy
   - road map for the examination
   - pilot project in 6-8 member states
   - build an archive with 200-300 (standard) questions
   - pilot tests in voluntary member states
CESMA / OM Specialist training and EXAM (Pilot project)

1. Application (from OM Section to CESMA officers)
   (at least 6 months before the exam)
2. Documents sent to the CESMA office
   - ETR + draft proposal of the exam process
   - Pilot states (institutes), time table, venues...
   - Examination in practice (where, who are responsible, form of the test (written/oral, MCQ, OSCE...), ”archive of questions”
3. CESMA appoints two observers
4. Communication between the CESMA and OM Section
5. Observation (on site) => report + need for improvement?
6. Award ceremony (2 x /year) in CESMA meetings
THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION 😊

http://www.uems.eu

http://www.uems-occupationalmedicine.org/